

VELOURS IRIS

TECHNICAL DATA SHEET

December 2022

The heaviest long-piled cotton velour of them all is opaque and provides an ultra-rich look, while still allowing for great suppleness. The pile length and density of Velour Iris guarantee deep rich colours that make the flame-retardant drape stand out in all kinds of theatre and stage settings. Looking for a lighter cotton drape with the same features? Check out the Velours Maia or Velours Hera.
